This is an old story. It probably was the first effort of the first human. It came down through the ages to the present day when moving picture cameras are everywhere, commercializing the idea, repaid a rich return. It is an old story—but it is the first time on record that it actually happened. It was staged over at 123 Whitehall street Monday morning in a Sunday morning paper that was the sorrow of nine men and a woman.

Dr. John A. Frasse was the victim. Sunday started the show, just the first time on record that it actually happened. It was staged over at 123 Whitehall street Monday morning in a Sunday morning paper that was the sorrow of nine men and a woman.

HOWARD TELLS HOUSE
TO TRANSFER BONDED
DEBT TO THE PEOPLE

In Forty-Minute Speech Georgian Says Solution of Problem Is in Postal Savings Bank System

CURRENCY BILL DOES NOT SOLVE ISSUE, HE STATES

Best Way to Distribute Bonded Debt, He Declares, Is to Remove Restrictions on Savings Bank System

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Congressman William Howard today addressed the house on the postal savings bank system. He spoke for forty minutes by unanimous consent, and was given an attentive hearing. Some of his utterances provoked applause.

The Atlanta congressman declared that the greatest problem confronting the framers of the administration currency bill, which passed the house recently, related to the proposed retirement of the $742,000,000 of government 2 per cent bonds now held by the banks and used by them as a basis of bank circulation. He stated that in his opinion the problem is not solved by the currency bill, but the simple and sound expedient of retiring the 2 per cent bonds with an issue of 3 per cent bonds would be a very useful purpose, by accumulating billions in savings of the people.

SPEAKING OF "KISSING"

Wilson's Pen Ready
TO SIGN TARIFF BILL

Senator Hoke Smith Assures President It Will Be Passed Up This Week

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Disputed points between the senate and house in the tariff bill have narrowed down to such minor features as the income tax, the tax on cotton futures, and the general administrative provisions. Democratic managers expected to send the conference report to the house by Thursday.

President Wilson told callers today that his conference with leaders led him to believe all differences will be smoothed out and he would sign the bill this week.

"I've got my pen sharpened," said the president.

Chairman Simmons of the senate finance committee, and Senator Hoke Smith assured President Wilson today that they expected the bill to be ready for his signature before the end of the week. The last session of the passage of a tariff measure, however, always offer opportunity for rejection of a conference report, and further debate may result.

AUTO ACCIDENT VICTIM
IDENTIFIED BY GROCER

Unconscious Woman at Grady Is Mary Knowles, a Cotton Mill Worker

The unconscious woman who has lain in the police department at Grady hospital following an automobile accident at Decatur street and North avenue on Sunday afternoon was identified Monday morning as Mary Knowles, of 177 Kennedy street. J. H. Everett, a negro, called on her at the hospital and, after viewing the woman, identified her as the frequently bought goods of him. Although her face was badly bruised, he said, he recognized her by a crippled hand, he said.

WOMAN DRINKS POISON
ON TRAIN TO ALBANY

Leaves Note Saying She Chose Suicide on Train to Escape Medical Attention

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
MOUNTAINEER, Ga., Sept. 22.—Mrs. O. L. Doolin, of Decatur, committed suicide on a Georgia Northern passenger train this morning by drinking the contents of a four-ounce bottle of carbolic acid. The dead woman had planned carefully to take her own life, as was evidenced by the contents of a note she had pinned to her dress just above her heart. In the note she stated that she had purchased a ticket to Albany was that she wanted to give the deadly fluid an opportunity to do its work without the interference of medical aid that might amuse.

Want a Nurse Girl?

You've had a half-dozen different nurse girls in the last few years, and not one of them has been entirely satisfactory!

Well, your experience is not unique by any means, for lots of others have just the same tale of woe to tell. You want a girl who is reliable, capable and honest, to whose care you can entrust your children when you are at the theater, making calls, or what not.

Try a Journal Want Ad for a nurse girl and you'll never have any other kind, for they are, as a general rule, the most efficient and reliable.

THREE DIE WHEN CARS CRASH HEAD TO HEAD

Electric Railway on Long Island Scene of Head-on Collision

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Three persons were killed and twenty injured early today in a head-on crash of two long island railroad electric trains at Calverton Point, Long Island. Of the injured, one was killed and the others were injured.

CONDUCTOR GEORGE BORCKEL, MOTORMAN CHARLES HOELLER, and a third man were killed. The train, carrying forty-one passengers, was on its way to work. The train, carrying forty-one passengers, was on its way to work. The train, carrying forty-one passengers, was on its way to work.

A hotel near the scene and a number of residences nearby were thrown open for use as emergency hospitals. Many ambulances and a corps of physicians were summoned to the scene.

The Pennsylvania Railroad issued a statement saying the accident had been caused, so far as could be determined, by the negligence of the operator at Calverton Junction. The train, carrying forty-one passengers, was on its way to work.

We Have Passed Overnight From Summer Into Autumn

And Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co.'s Ready-to-Wear Section Presents in a Fine Degree of Completeness

The New Season's Authentic and Authoritative Fashions

"Be not the first by whom the new are tried Nor yet the last to lay the old aside."

Women are concerned principally now by the latter admonition--the passing of the autumnal equinox precluded the possibility of one being the first to try the new.

It is time now for the new styles!

Soon we will be getting late--and no one wants to be the last to lay the old aside.

The Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. display of fall fashions has been timed to this moment of certainty--of certainty as to what is genuine and authentic in style.

And now it speaks with that authority.

No, it does not speak but exhibits with that authority.

This advertisement can never disclose the wealth and beauty and surpassing variety of the Ready-to-Wear Section. It can but throw out a few hints and leave it to woman's interest in the fall fashions to see what has been done in preparation for this announcement.

There is a completeness and thoroughness about things here this season that has never been attained before--the progress we have made over last year seems greater than from any other one season to another.

Is it the diversity of the styles that Paris has given us, is it extra effort on our part?

It is both. Paris has given us varied styles, we have worked with determination that must put this Ready-to-wear Section first in the minds and hearts of Atlanta women.

What is the style?

Here Are Hundreds of Suits of Different Styles

And the happy result is a season where the strict following of an arbitrary law gives place to the abstract--becomingness, that is the style, as you shall find here, and that is why we stress the bigness of this display.

Becoming Suits for hundreds and hundreds of women

If there is one style that is notable above others it is that the cutaway coat is the motif of the fashions. It seems to run through the scheme of things. It is varied--very, very varied.

There are cutaway coats that button close about the neck, others have the wide lapels and the general appearance of a man's evening coat, others are fashioned to show a tapestry or brocaded vest over the bust, others show the vest at the waist; and then there are others--and very smart--that are fashioned with a sash to hold the coat to a blouse.

All of which means that women may have a stylish suit that best becomes them!

Long shoulders are noticeable, sleeves hardly begin to be sleeves until they are brought below the shoulders. The butterfly or kimono effect is the result. In many of the "dressy" suits this butterfly effect is carried out with a seamless back and a big butterfly bow at the back waist. The word "fancy" fits in with the new styles, as the cutaway coats, the draped skirts, the trimmings (fur bands, skunk, fitch, broad-tail chinchilla and ermine, tapestry and velvet vests, velvet buttons, collars and cuffs) and the fabrics--velours, matelasse, diagonals, wool failles, wool crepes, duvetyne and peau de peche--all these tend to make suits this season fancy and the colors, the rich mahogany shades, the greens--bottle and bronze--the prune shades, tete de negre.

These points show in

- a broadtail suit with skunk collar and cuffs.
- a taupe bayadere cloth suit with velvet collar and wide revers, a tunic of cloth over velvet.
- a black duvetyne blouse model with sash, Oriental embroidered vest and peg top skirt.
- and, to prove the scope of styles this year, in a ruby chiffon cloth suit, with a long, straight Balkan coat, edged and belted with velvet and having a collar of sable squirrel.

—a combination suit has a coat of tete de negre matelasse and a draped skirt of peau de peche in the same shade. The coat has a collar of gold and prune tapestry.

But it seems hardly fair to mention a mere half dozen suits out of all these that are worthy and distinctive.

See them with your own eyes and judge how well we have solved the suit problem for the women of Atlanta this Fall.

The New Dresses Are Charming Affairs

Exquisite Evening Dresses, Glorious Afternoon Costumes and Smart Street Dresses.

Here is Paris!

Fact is we doubt if one could shop in Paris with such satisfaction as one may right here! The fashions that the wizards scattered over Paris have evolved are gathered here within arms' reach--you may see and study them all, side by side--reproductions, yes, and therefore sans the prices of the originals.

To tell you that we have gathered great and numbers of more beautiful dresses this season than ever before is but to tell what will probably be the first expression of those who know us best.

The styles are not simple, the richness of fabrics, of colors and the masses of laces and nets rob the evening and afternoon dresses of simplicity and create a glory that is new.

And therefore one must be circumspect this season. Good taste is never gaudy--and in the hands of the lesser artists the richness that is the mark of fashion becomes a mass of colors--bizarre and outré. Not so here.

One dress after another of surprising beauty.

A salmon pink Canton Crepe has a six inch wide girdle of blue chenille, embroidered in green and yellow and terra cotta flowers--oriental in the extreme--the girdle ends in a long navy streamer. A bold combination of colors and a beautiful one. The bodice is covered with sand colored chantilly lace.

A bronze crepe dress has a bodice of shadow lace, wide black moire girdle, a red corsage rose, the skirt drapes most gracefully.

A dainty affair, a chiffon dress of morning light blue underbodice, with lavender girdle and little French flowers on bodice. The skirt shows an over-drop of shadow lace.

Dresses for street wear take in more richness. The materials--woolen crepes, woolen matelasses, diagonals, charmeuse, the new corded silks, the silk brocades and the silk matelasses show the tendency, as do the always draped skirts, the use of sashes, the frillings at the sleeves and necks, the "vest effects" in oriental colors. There is much of interest here right now.
